)	CHAPTER 13 CASE
Debtors.

Notice of Motion to Dismiss Chapter 13 Case and Opportunity to Object and for a Hearing

No Objection. The Court may consider this request for an order without further notice or hearing unless a party in interest files an objection within seven (7) days of the date of this notice.

If an objection is not filed within the time permitted, the Court may consider that there is no opposition to the granting of the requested relief and may grant the relief without further notice or hearing.

Objection. Any objection shall set out the legal and/or factual basis for the objection. A copy of the objection shall be served on the moving party.

Hearing on Objection. If an objection is filed then the debtor(s) will schedule a hearing and serve and file a notice of hearing.

COME NOW the debtors, by and through their attorney of record, J. Bart Green of Green & Green Law Firm, pursuant to Section 1307(b) of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, Federal Bankruptcy Rule of Procedure 1017(f) (2), F.B.R.P. 9013 and Local Bankruptcy Rule 1017.1, and hereby move the Court for an order dismissing the case under Chapter 13 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. Pursuant to L.B.R. 1017.1, there is a pending motion to dismiss the case. At this time the dismissal is sought because there has been a significant change in circumstances in the economy because of the Covid-19 pandemic and the stay-at-home order issued by Governor Brad Little. As a consequence of the adverse impact on the economy and the impact it is likely to have on real estate sales the debtors want to have the case dismissed because they think that the plan is no longer feasible or in their best interests.

In light of the recent memorandum decision by the Honorable Joseph M. Meier, Chief U.S. Bankruptcy Judge, in the case of In re Evans and Steedham, Case # 19-40193-JMM, entered on February 13, 2020, Docket #40, and Order Sustaining Objection to Trustee's Final Report, Docket #41, and Section 1326 (a)(2), of the United States Bankruptcy Code, debtors request that the Court order and direct the Chapter 13 Trustee to return all payments to the debtors and that the Trustee shall not retain a percentage fee where the case has not been confirmed.

DATED this 20th day of April, 2020.
