

Information & Updates 3.10.2023

Training – Luma Roles

---

3/16/23 – Recruiter Role workshop -- will go over high-level, top impacts of the changes (not formal training!)

3/21/23 – HR Generalist Role Workshop -- will go over high-level, top impacts of the changes (not formal training!)

- links have already been sent out to these. No additional invitations will be sent for these. Will be recorded.

DHR Legislation

Legislative update: DHR presented our proposed rule changes to the House Commerce and Human Resources committee on January 19th. The committee did not vote on the rules at that time so they will be heard again in committee this coming Monday March 13th at 1:30pm.

Public Service Recognition Week – Coming Soon!

It will be here before we know it!!

Public Service Recognition week will be: May 7-13, 2023. You can find out additional information:

<https://nationaltoday.com/public-service-recognition-week/>

Start planning your events. Consider options for including all staff (including those that might work remotely). If anyone is willing to take the lead to compile ideas from HR staff, please reach out to Andrea Ryan.

CEC Guidance – Where are we now?

We're one step closer to getting final approval. On Wednesday, the House passed the CEC and DHR appropriation and it will now move to the Senate for consideration. We anticipate that the final CEC Guidance will be distributed to agencies shortly following Senate approval.
